

John Peacock, Chief Executive Officer of Associations Forum, is one of Asia Pacific's most experienced advisors and thought leader to associations.

Since 1989, John has worked for, trained or consulted to many hundreds of associations and charities on strategic, governance, board effectiveness, operations, restructuring and financial issues.

Since 2009, John has spoken at association training events and conferences in Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, The Philippines, India, China, Thailand, Korea, South Africa, USA, Spain, UAE, United Kingdom and Saudi Arabia.

John strongly believes that the freedom to associate is a core foundation of democracy. Strong and well-governed associations and charities support their members or their cause, are independent of government and bureaucracy, plus generate jobs for employees and income for suppliers. John welcomes the opportunity to discuss how associations & charities are advancing the world.
